SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Wehrbein, in view of the fact that we're going to drop this instead of in the puddle, that's kind of gross, we're going to drop one dumpling in the grease one time, let me ask you this question. On page 5, one of the duties of the Department of Education, in addition to evaluating, setting up advisory committees and all these other things for this one-year thing, it is required to conduct a follow-up of students beyond graduation at one-year, three-year, and five-year intervals. If you're going to give this one-time appropriation, why should the department have to follow-up the students who are in that class for five years?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Well, Senator Chambers, I think I understand your concern about that. I don't know that that's a huge problem within this bill. One...maybe following up even with the one-year injection isn't a bad idea. On the other hand, it probably can be taken out. I...I don't want to speak for Senator Stuhr's bill. From my viewpoint, if that needs to be adjusted by Select File, that would be fine. I don't know that it's a problem within this bill because if you do have students benefitting from this grant for the first year it might not be illogical to follow-up one, three, and five years later even on a one-time basis. So I don't know that it makes a lot of difference either way to me.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, it may not make much difference. Does it make a lot of sense to you?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: No, but I can find lots of things in lots of bills. (Laugh)

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Me too. (Laugh) I'd like to ask Senator Stuhr a question. Thank you, "Squire". Senator Stuhr, on page 5 we have this language: "Within 30 days after the effective date of this act, the State Board of Vocational Education shall appoint and convene an advisory committee to provide recommendations to the State Board of Vocational Education relating to the administration of the Education and Career Preparation Act." Is this bill the Career...the
